Permission to publish granted by History San José does not constitute copyright clearance or right of publicity release; materials owned by HSJ which may be subject to copyright will also require written permission from the current copyright owner(s), or their heirs or assigns.

1. Photographs may not altered. Any additions or other changes, including electronically, cropping or use in text or graphic overlay, must be preceded by written permission from History San José.

2. History San José has the right to withdraw permission to use materials from its collection if these terms of use are not followed by the user.
3. Permission to use materials from the collections is granted on a one-time basis only, and for the purpose stated on the front of this form only. Publication (printed or electronically), copying or display of photographs other than for the specific purpose stated is unauthorized and prohibited.
4. Permission for use is granted only for the materials listed on this form. Use of these materials for a purpose other than that stated on this form, or for the same purpose more than once must be preceded by signing a permission form each time the materials are used. Distribution of any print obtained from the HSJ to any person who does not sign a permission form is prohibited.

Please Note:

- (a) Credit line: Courtesy, History San José, must be used on all items HSJ grants permission to use. The credit line should be in close proximity to the image or item displayed.
- (b) We request copies or tear sheets of your publication for our files.

I have read, understand and agree to abide by the provisions stated on this form.
