

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Save the Date for the 3rd Annual Silicon Valley Bikes! Festival & Bicycle Show:
Sunday, May 7, 2017 at History Park 11am to 5 pm

San José, CA – February 15, 2017 – Come kick off National Bike Month at the Silicon Valley Bikes! Festival & Bicycle Show on Sunday, May 7th from 11:00am – 5:00pm, at History Park, 635 Phelan Avenue, San José.

No other Bay Area festival brings together the Valley's largest cycling clubs, riding groups, their families, bicycling-oriented helping organizations and the general public. Enjoy a day featuring food trucks, craft beer, a Kids' Space, thrilling BMX stunt riding shows, demonstrations, artisans, Craft, music, historical exhibitions, free valet bicycle parking and a spectacular bicycle show that attracts custom, vintage, cruiser and lowrider builders and collectors. Also exhibiting are the not-for-profit and governmental agencies that enlist cyclists to do great good and businesses that offer products of interest to cyclists and to the public.

Our volunteer-run Festival is a project of History San José and a collaboration with Silicon Valley Bicycle Coalition (www.bikesiliconvalley.org), the Mineta Transportation Institute (www.transweb.sjsu.edu), Gooseneck Bicycles Magazine, Pops Fabrication, Petite Galleria (www.petitegalleria.com) and Santa Clara Valley Brewing (www.scvbrewing.com), with special support from Bay Area Bicycle Law (www.bayareabicyclelaw.com), Specialized Bicycle Components (www.specialized.com) Stampede Bikes (www.stampede bikes.com) and the Santa Clara Valley Transportation Authority (www.vta.org).

Admission is $5, $5 per show bike, children ages five and under are admitted free. For more information, visit: www.siliconvalleybikesfestival.org or call 408.918.1049.

About History San José:

History San José is a nonprofit organization that collects, preserves and celebrates the stories of diversity and innovation in San José and the Santa Clara Valley.
