THE HARTFORD DWELLING HOUSE FORM

§ 201

On the one story frame building and its additions, adjoining and communicating, foundations, porches, verandas, screen doors and windows, immovable wall and ceiling decorations and frescoes, mantels and stationary mirrors, glass of all kinds and sizes, gas, steam and water pipes and connections, electric bells, electric light wiring, fixtures and connections and stationary heating apparatus therein (also wood and iron fences, cement and wood walls, provided the building described be situated in a city or town) only while occupied as a DWELLING and situate on the south side of Campbell Avenue, west of Second Street, as per Sheet 2, Block 21, No. 8 Sanborn Map of

CAMPEL, CALIFORNIA

On household furniture, useful and ornamental, family stores, family wearing apparel, printed books, silver and plated ware, jewelry, musical instruments, pictures and other works of art, and all other personal effects of every kind and description (other than accounts, bills, currency, deeds, evidences of debt, money, notes or securities, bullion, drawings, dies, manuscripts, medals, models or patterns), being the property of the insured or (unless specifically insured) of any member of the insured's household, all while contained in the above building.

Claim for loss on any one picture, piece of statuary, or work of art, unless specifically insured, not to exceed $100, and on any article not to exceed the cost of same.

Insurance under second item of this policy shall not cover any article on which specific insurance is carried in this or any other Company.

Loss, if any, payable to Insured

Plumbing, gas, steam and electric fittings, ordinary alterations and repairs, and the use of gas and coal oil stoves and lamps, and electric lights permitted without notice.

Permission is hereby granted for the above described premises to become vacant or unoccupied and so remain for not exceeding thirty days.

GASOLINE LAMP AND/OR STOVE PERMIT.—Permission is hereby granted (when not prohibited by local ordinance) for the use of gasoline stoves or lamps, it being warranted by the assured that the reservoir attached to each stove or lamp shall contain not to exceed one gallon of gasoline, and that said reservoir shall be filled during daylight only, and then only when the stove or lamp is not in use, and that no artificial light be permitted in the room when the reservoir is being filled, and that no gasoline, except that contained in the reservoir, shall be kept within the building. A breach of this warranty renders this permit null and void.

CAUTION.—The danger from Gasoline Stoves is not so much in themselves as in having the gasoline about. At ordinary temperature gasoline continually gives off inflammable vapor, and a light some distance from it will ignite it through the medium of this vapor. It is said that one pint of Gasoline will impregnate 200 cubic feet of air and make it explosive; and it depends upon the proportion of air and vapor whether it becomes a burning gas or a destructive explosive. Beware of any leaks in cans, and never forget how dangerous a material you are handling. Never attempt to fill the stove or reservoir while the stove is burning or if any other light is in the room. A little carelessness may hazard your life as well as your property.

This slip is attached to and made a part of Policy No. 59974 of the HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford, Conn.

PLUMBING, gas, steam and electric fittings, ordinary alterations and repairs, and the use of gas and coal oil stoves and lamps, and electric lights, permitted without notice.

LIGHTNING CLAUSE—It is hereby specially agreed that this policy shall never lose or damage by lightning (harming thereby the commonly accepted use of the name lightning, and not in any way to include bodily harm or any damage by wind or electric storms), but the property hereby insured shall never lose or damage by lightining or fire in the property, whether the same be or not, and provided the property hereby insured upon the property insured, and not this Company shall be liable for such damage, nor shall this Company ever become liable for any loss or damage as the same hereby limited bears to the whole amount insured, whether such other insurance contains a similar provision or not.

WARRANTY FOR THE USE OF GASOLINE STOVES OR LAMPS HAVING SEPARATE RESERVOIR ATTACHED.

In consideration of this permit it is warranted by the insured that the reservoir shall be filled during daylight only, and then only when the stove or kerosene or lamp is in use, and that no artificial light be permitted in the room when the reservoir is being filled, and that no gas, except that contained in the reservoir, is to be used in the room or in any other part of the building, and that the gas be shut off when the room is not occupied, and that no gas be used in the building—otherwise this Policy shall become void and null.

COPY—No danger from gasolene stove is not so much in danger as is the danger from the gasolene. At ordinary temperatures gasoline contains ordinarily very small amount of gasolene at ordinary temperatures of this vapor. It is well that our own fine gasolene will vaporize at 2000 parts of air and make it explosive, and it depends upon the importance of danger whether it becomes a burning gas or a destructive explosive. Beware of any smell and if any odor is in the room. A little carelessness may hazard your life as well as your property.

Loss, if any, payable to E. A. BARKER

Plumbing, gas, steam and electric fittings, ordinary alterations and repairs, and the use of gas and coal oil stoves and lamps, and electric lights, permitted without notice.

LIGHTNING Clause.—It is hereby specially agreed that this Policy shall cover loss or damage by Lightning (meaning thereby the commonly accepted use of the term lightning, and not in any case to include loss or damage by wind or electric storms), to the property hereby insured not exceeding the sum insured nor the interest of the assured in the property, whether fire ensues or not, and provided that if there is other insurance upon the property damaged, then this Company shall only be liable for such proportion of the loss or damage as the sum hereby insured bears to the whole amount of insurance thereon, whether such other insurance contains a similar provision or not.

Permission is hereby granted to use gasoline lamps and/or stoves, the following warranty being made a part of this policy:

WARRANTY FOR THE USE OF GASOLINE STOVES OR LAMPS HAVING SEPARATE RESERVOIR ATTACHED.

In consideration of this permit it is warranted by the assured that the reservoir shall be filled during daylight only, and then only when the stove or lamp is not in use, and that no artificial light be permitted in the room when the reservoir is being filled, and that no gasoline, except that contained in the reservoir, shall be kept within the building—otherwise this Policy shall become null and void.

CAUTION—The danger from Gasoline Stoves is not so much in themselves as in having the gasoline about. At ordinary temperature gasoline continually gives off inflammable vapor, and a light some distance from it will ignite it through the medium of this vapor. It is said that one pint of Gasoline will impruneate 200 cubic feet of air and make it explosive, and it depends upon the proportion of air and vapor whether it becomes a burning gas or a destructive explosive. Beware of any leaks in cans, and never forget how dangerous a material you are handling. Never attempt to fill the stove reservoir while the stove is burning, or if any other light is in the room. A little carelessness may hazard your life as well as your property.

CAUTION.—The danger from Gasoline stoves is not so much in themselves as in having the gasoline about. At ordinary temperature gasoline gives off inflammable vapor, and a light some distance from it will ignite it through the medium of this vapor. It is said that one pint of Gasoline will impregnate 200 cubic feet of air and make it explosive, and it depends upon the proportion of air and vapor whether it becomes a burning gas or a destructive explosive. Beware of any leaks in cans, and never forget how dangerous a material you are handling. Never attempt to fill the stove reservoir while the stove is burning, or if any other light is in the room. A little carelessness may hazard your life as well as your property.

Plumbing, gas, steam and electric fittings, ordinary alterations and repairs, and the use of gas and coal oil stoves and lamps, and electric lights, permitted without notice.

LIGHTNING CLAUSE—It is hereby specially agreed that this Policy shall cover loss or damage by Lightning (meaning thereby the commonly accepted use of the term lightning, and not in any case to include loss or damage by wind or electric storms), to the property hereby insured not exceeding the sum insured nor the interest of the assured in the property, whether fire ensues or not, and provided that if there is other insurance upon the property damaged, then this Company shall only be liable for such proportion of the loss or damage as the sum hereby insured bears to the whole amount of insurance thereon, whether such other insurance contains a similar provision or not.

Permission is hereby granted to use gasoline lamps and/or stoves, the following warranty being made a part of this Policy.

WARRANTY FOR THE USE OF GASOLINE STOVES OR LAMPS HAVING SEPARATE RESERVOIR ATTACHED.

In consideration of this permit it is warranted by the assured that the reservoir shall be filled during daylight only, and then only when the stove or lamp is not in use, and that no artificial light be permitted in the room when the reservoir is being filled, and that no gasoline, except that contained in the reservoir, shall be kept within the building—otherwise this Policy shall become null and void.

CAUTION—The danger from Gasoline Stoves is not so much in themselves as in having the gasoline about. At ordinary temperature gasoline continuously gives off inflammable vapor and a light some distance from it will ignite it through the medium of this vapor. It is said that one pint of gasoline will impregnate 200 cubic feet of air and make it explosive, and it depends upon the proportion of air and vapor whether it becomes a burning gas or a destructive explosive. Beware of any leaks in cans, and never forget how dangerous a material you are handling. Never attempt to fill the stove reservoir while the stove is burning, or if any light is in the room. A little carelessness may hazard your life as well as your property.

On household furniture, useful and ornamental, family stores, family wearing apparel, printed books, silver and plated ware, jewelry, musical instruments, pictures and other works of art, and all other personal effects of every kind and description (other than accounts, bills, currency, deeds, evidences of debt, money, notes or securities, bullion, drawings, dies, manuscripts, medals, models or patterns), being the property of the insured or (unless specifically insured) of any member of the insured’s household, all while contained in the above building.

Claim for loss on any one picture, piece of statuary, or work of art, unless specifically insured, not to exceed $100, and on any article not to exceed the cost of same.

Insurance under second item of this policy shall not cover any article on which specific insurance is carried in this or any other Company.

Loss, if any, payable to Insured

Plumbing, gas, steam and electric fittings, ordinary alterations and repairs, and the use of gas and coal oil stoves and lamps, and electric lights permitted without notice.

Permission is hereby granted for the above described premises to become vacant or unoccupied and so remain for not exceeding thirty days.

GASOLINE LAMP AND/OR STOVE PERMIT.—Permission is hereby granted (when not prohibited by local ordinance) for the use of gasoline stoves or lamps, it being warranted by the assured that the reservoir attached to each stove or lamp shall contain not to exceed one gallon of gasoline, and that said reservoir shall be filled during daylight only, and then only when the stove or lamp is not in use, and that no artificial light be permitted in the room when the reservoir is being filled, and that no gasoline, except that contained in the reservoir, shall be kept within the building. A breach of this warranty renders this permit null and void.

CAUTION.—The danger from Gasoline Stoves is not so much in themselves as in having the gasoline about. At ordinary temperature gasoline continually gives off inflammable vapor, and a light some distance from it will ignite it through the medium of this vapor. It is said that one pint of Gasoline will impregnate 200 cubic feet of air and make it explosive; and it depends upon the proportion of air and vapor whether it becomes a burning gas or a destructive explosive. Beware of any leaks in cans, and never forget how dangerous a material you are handling. Never attempt to fill the stove or reservoir while the stove is burning or if any other light is in the room. A little carelessness may hazard your life as well as your property.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of 12th at hand, enclosing policies Nos 63631 and 68607: and we have consented to assignment of the former to Edith P. Barker and Carrie L. Watson, and return same herewith.

With reference to rate on Policy No. 68607, we beg to state that the old rate of 1.60 on No. 114256—of which 68607 is a renewal—applied to farm dwellings only, and since the issuance of the expired policy, the farm tariff has been abolished and the county rate is applicable. If there is a brick chimney in the dwelling, the correct rate is 1.20; if a terra cotta flue, 1.40. We will hold the policy in this office pending receipt of your reply, and on receipt of same will change the policy to agree.

Yours very truly,

LIGHTNING CLAUSE.—It is hereby specially agreed that this Policy shall cover loss or damage by Lightning (meaning thereby the commonly accepted use of the term lightning, and not in any case to include loss or damage by wind or electric storms), to the property hereby insured not exceeding the sum insured nor the interest of the assured in the property, whether fire ensues or not, and provided that if there is other insurance upon the property damaged, then this Company shall only be liable for such proportion of the loss or damage as the sum hereby insured bears to the whole amount of insurance thereon, whether such other insurance contains a similar provision or not.

Permission is hereby granted to use gasoline lamps and/or stoves, the following warranty being made a part of this Policy.

WARRANTY FOR THE USE OF GASOLINE STOVES OR LAMPS HAVING SEPARATE RESERVOIR ATTACHED.

In consideration of this permit it is warranted by the assured that the reservoir shall be filled during daylight only, and then only when the stove or lamp is not in use, and that no artificial light be permitted in the room when the reservoir is being filled, and that no gasoline, except that contained in the reservoir, shall be kept within the building.—otherwise this Policy shall become null and void.

CAUTION—The danger from Gasoline Stoves is not so much in themselves as in having the gasoline about. At ordinary temperature gasoline continually gives off inflammable vapor and a light some distance from it will ignite it through the medium of this vapor. It is said that one pint of gasoline will impregnate 200 cubic feet of air and make it explosive, and it depends upon the proportion of air and vapor whether it becomes a burning gas or a destructive explosive. Beware of any leaks in cans, and never forget how dangerous a material you are handling. Never attempt to fill the stove reservoir while the stove is burning, or if any other light is in the room. A little carelessness may hazard your life as well as your property.

On household furniture, useful and ornamental, family stores, family wearing apparel, musical instruments, printed books, silver and plated ware, pictures and other works of art, and all other personal effects of every kind and description (other than accounts, bills, currency, deeds, evidences of debt, money, notes or securities, bullion, drawings, dies, manuscripts, medals, models, or patterns), all while contained in above described dwelling.

Claim for loss on any one picture, piece of statuary or work of art (unless specifically insured for a greater amount) not to exceed $100.00, and on any other article not to exceed cost of same.

Loss, if any, payable to Assured.

Plumbing, gas, steam and electric fittings, ordinary alterations and repairs, and the use of gas and coal oil stoves and lamps, and electric lights, permitted without notice.

LIGHTNING CLAUSE.—It is hereby specially agreed that this Policy shall cover loss or damage by Lightning (meaning thereby the commonly accepted use of the term lightning, and not in any case to include loss or damage by wind or electric storms), to the property hereby insured not exceeding the sum insured nor the interest of the assured in the property, whether fire ensues or not, and provided that if there is other insurance upon the property damaged, then this Company shall only be liable for such proportion of the loss or damage as the sum hereby insured bears to the whole amount of insurance thereon, whether such other insurance contains a similar provision or not.

Permission is hereby granted to use gasoline lamps and/or stoves, the following warranty being made a part of this policy:

WARRANTY FOR THE USE OF GASOLINE STOVES OR LAMPS HAVING SEPARATE RESERVOIR ATTACHED.

In consideration of this permit it is warranted by the assured that the reservoir shall be filled during daylight only, and then only when the stove or lamp is not in use, and that no artificial light be permitted in the room when the reservoir is being filled, and that no gasoline, except that contained in the reservoir, shall be kept within the building—otherwise this Policy shall become null and void.

CAUTION—The danger from Gasoline Stoves is not so much in themselves as in leaving the gasoline about. At ordinary temperature gasoline continually gives off inflammable vapor, and a light some distance from it will ignite it through the medium of this vapor. It is said that one PINT OF GASOLINE WILL IMPREGNATE 200 CUBIC FEET OF AIR and make it explosive, and it depends upon the proportion of air and vapor whether it becomes a burning gas or a destructive explosive. Beware of any leaks in cans, and never forget how dangerous a material you are handling. Never attempt to fill the stove reservoir while the stove is burning, or if any other light is in the room. A little carelessness may hazard your life as well as your property.
